

This scrapbook of Virginia Young Sinclair was started in the spring of 1942. The clippings contain news of enlistments, deaths and those missing in action from the Greene area. Also included are pictures of teachers although some have not been life-long residents of Greene.

It has been donated by Amy Sinclair Dahm, the daughter of Virginia Young Sinclair who grew up in Greene, to the Town of Greene Historical Society, in her mother's memory